Guidelines for Change of Final Year Project

Change of Supervisor
Unless under exceptional circumstances and with department’s approval, application for changing supervisor will not be entertained.

Change of Project
Once a project is allocated to a student, he/she may change it ONLY with the supervisor’s agreement.

Converting an Industrial Attachment Scheme (IAS) Project to Final Year Project
At the end of the IAS, students may apply for converting their IAS projects to final year projects ONLY with the supervisor’s agreement. This will be treated in the same way as changing the project, which implies no change of supervisor.

Change of Project Title
Students may make slight changes to the project title from time to time in consultation with the supervisor.
